

ONLINE VOTING RESULTS

General Assembly 2 of 2021

|                                                                                             |                                                              | Votes |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| 1. Do you approve Deb Adair as the new INQAAHE President (as proposed by the Board)? |                                                              |       |
|                                                                                             | YES                                                          | 93    |
|                                                                                             | NO                                                           | 0     |
|                                                                                             | Abstain/NOTA                                                 | 0     |
| 2. Which member agency should host INQAAHE Conference 2023 in Kazakhstan?            |                                                              |       |
|                                                                                             | Independent Agency for Quality Assurance in Education (IQAA) | 64    |
|                                                                                             | Independent Agency for Accreditation and Rating (IAAR)       | 23    |
|                                                                                             | Abstain/NOTA                                                 | 0     |

|                                    |           |
|------------------------------------|-----------|
| TOTAL votes casted          | 96 |
| INQAAHE Full and Associate members | 321       |
| Turnout                            | 29.91%    |
| Minimum quorum needed              | 25%       |