

Dr Karen Treloar

Director Engagement Group, Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency (TEQSA)

Dr Karen Treloar is the Director of the Engagement Group at TEQSA. Dr Treloar has strong leadership, strategy and collaboration skills. Her role at TEQSA currently involves building and developing all elements of partnerships with international quality assurance agencies and governments. Karen's experience extends across all aspects of teaching and learning and the student experience. Karen has led TEQSA's responses to many sector wide initiatives in higher education including the current focus on the Quality Assurance of Online Learning and Academic Integrity. Karen's team is also responsible for the highly successful TEQSA conference. Karen continues to work on quality projects in other countries including recent work with quality assurance experts in: Oman, South Africa, Sri Lanka and Vietnam.