(2) The Regulations shall be prepared by the Academic Council and shall be submitted to the Syndicate which may approve them or withhold approval or refer them back to the Academic Council for reconsideration. A Regulation prepared by the Academic Council shall not be valid, unless it receives the approval of the Syndicate.

31. Amendment and repeal of Statutes and Regulations:

The procedure for adding to, amending or repealing the Statutes and the Regulations shall be the same as that prescribed respectively for framing or making Statutes and Regulations.

32. Rules:

(1) The Authorities and the other bodies of the University may make Rules consistent with this Act, Statutes and the Regulations, to regulate the conduct of their business and the time and place of meetings and related matters:

Provided that the Syndicate may direct the amendment or the annulment of any Rules, made by another Authority or body excepting the Senate, under this section:

Provided further that if such other Authority or body is dis-satisfied with such direction it may appeal to the Senate whose decision in the matter shall be final.

(2) The Syndicate may make Rules to regulate any matter relating to the affairs of the University which has not been specifically provided for by this Act, the Statutes or Regulation.

CHAPTER-VI

AFFILIATION OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS TO THE UNIVERSITY

33. Affiliation:

(1) An educational institution applying for affiliation to the University shall make an application to the University and shall satisfy it:

- (i) that the educational institution is under the management of the Government or of a regularly constituted governing body;
- (ii) that the financial resources of the educational institution are sufficient to enable it to make due provision for its continued maintenance and efficient working;
- (iii) that the strength and qualifications of the teaching and other staff, and the terms and conditions of their service, are adequate to make due provision for the courses of instruction, teaching or training to be undertaken by the educational institution;
- (iv) that the educational institution has framed proper rules regarding the efficiency and discipline of its staff and other employees;
- (v) that the building in which the educational institution is to be located is suitable, and that provision will be made in conformity with the Statutes and the Regulations for the residence of students, not residing with their parents or guardians, in the hostels established and maintained by the educational institution or in hostels or lodgings approved by it, and the supervision and physical and general welfare of students;
- (vi) that provision has been made for Library and adequate library services;
- (vii) that where affiliation is sought in any branch of experimental sciences, due arrangements have been made for imparting instruction in that branch of science in a properly equipped laboratory, museum and other places of practical work;

- (viii) that due provision will, so far as circumstances may permit, be made for the residence of Principal and members of the teaching staff in or near the college or the place provided for the residence of students ; and
- (ix) that the affiliation of the educational institution, having regard to the provision which may have been made for students by another educational institution in its neighborhood, will not be injurious to the interests of education or discipline.

(2) The application shall further contain an undertaking that after the educational institution is affiliated any transference of, and changes in the management and in the teaching staff shall be forthwith reported to the University, and that the teaching staff shall possess such qualifications as are or may be prescribed.

(3) The procedure to be followed in disposing of an application for the affiliation of an educational institution shall be such as may be prescribed.

(4) The Syndicate may, on the recommendation of the Affiliation Committee, grant or refuse affiliation to an educational institution:

Provided that affiliation shall not be refused, unless the educational institution has been given an opportunity of making a representation against the proposed decision.

34. Addition of courses by affiliated educational institution:

Where an educational institution desires to add to the courses of instructions in respect of which it is affiliated, the procedure prescribed under sub-section (3) of section 33 shall, so far as may be, be followed.

35. Reports from affiliated educational institutions.

(1) Every educational institution affiliated to the University shall furnish such reports, returns and other information as the University may require to enable it to judge the efficiency of the educational institution.

(2) The University may call upon any educational institution affiliated to it to take, within a specified period, such action as may appear to the University to be necessary in respect of any of the matters referred to in sub-section (1) of section 33.

36. Withdrawal of affiliation.

(1) If an educational institution affiliated to the University fails at any time to fulfill any of the requirements mentioned in this Act, or if an institution has failed to observe any of the conditions of its affiliation, or its affairs are conducted in a manner which is prejudicial to the interest of education, the Syndicate may, on the recommendation of the Affiliation

Committee, and after considering such representation as the educational institution may wish to make, withdraw, either in whole or in part, the rights conferred on the., educational institution by affiliation or modify such rights.

(2) The procedure to be followed for the withdrawal of affiliation shall be such as may be prescribed.

37. Appeal against refusal or withdrawal of affiliation:

An appeal shall lie to the Senate against the decision of the Syndicate refusing to affiliate an institution, or withdrawing in whole or in part the rights conferred on an institution by affiliation or modifying such rights.

38. Taking over of institution or colleges:

(1) The Chief Minister may, on request of any affiliated institution or college direct that the control and management of such educational, institution or college may be taken over by the University.

Any casual vacancy among the elected, appointed or nominated members of any Authority shall be filled, as soon as, conveniently may be, by the person or persons or the body who elected, appointed or nominated that member whose place has become vacant and the person elected, appointed or nominated to the vacancy shall be a member of such Authority for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member.

47. Voids in the constitution of Authorities:

Where there is a void in the constitution of an Authority as constituted by this Act, because of the abolition of a specified office under Government or because an organization, institution or other body outside the University has been dissolved or has ceased to function or because of some other similar reason, the void shall be filled in such manner as the Chief Minister may direct.

48. Disputes about membership of Authorities:

If a question arises whether any person is entitled to be a member of any Authority, the matter shall be referred to a committee consisting of the Vice-Chancellor and the judge of the High Court and the senior most Dean who are members of the Syndicate and the decision of this committee shall be final and binding.

49. Proceedings of Authorities not invalidated by vacancies.

No act, resolution or decision of any Authority shall be invalid by reason of any vacancy on the Authority doing, passing, or making it or by reason of any want of qualification or invalidity in the election, appointment or nomination of any defect to member of the Authority, whether present or absent.

50. First Statutes.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, the Chief Minister, shall promulgate the First Statutes which shall be deemed to be the Statutes framed under section 29 and shall continue to remain in force until amended or replaced or till such time as new Statutes are framed in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

51. Removal of difficulties at the commencement of the Act.

If any difficulty arises as to the first constitution or reconstitution of any Authority upon the coming into force of this Act, or otherwise in first implementation of the provisions of this Act, the Chief Minister may, on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor, give appropriate directions to remove such difficulty.

52. Bar of Jurisdiction.

No court shall have jurisdiction to entertain any proceedings, grant any injunction or make any order in relation to anything done or purported to have been done or intended to be done under this Act.

53. Indemnity.

No suit or legal proceedings shall lie against Government, the University or any authority, officer or employee of Government or University or any person in respect of anything which is done or purported to have been done or intended to be or, has been done in good faith under this Act.

54. Power to require officers, teachers or employees to serve under any Government or Organization.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act: -

- (a) any officer, teacher or other employee of the University shall, as the Chief Minister may in the public interest and in consultation with the Government direct, serve in any post under Government or any other University or an educational or research institution; Provided that in the case of a teacher, the Syndicate shall be consulted before issuing the direction;
- (b) the Chief Minister may, in the public interest, direct any post in the University to be filled by appointing an employee of Government or any other University or an educational or research institution:

Provided that in the case of a teacher, the Selection Board shall be consulted before filling in the post.

- (2) Where any appointment or transfer has been made under this section, the terms and conditions of service of the appointee or transferee shall not be less favorable than those admissible to him immediately before such appointment or transfer and he shall be entitled to all benefits of his past service.
