Mandate of the University of Buner

The University of Buner, established in 2016 under the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Universities Act, 2012 (Amended 2016), is a public sector higher education institution with a clear and comprehensive mandate to advance learning, research, and innovation for the socio-economic development of the region and the country at large.

The University's core mandate is the provision of quality higher education in diverse academic disciplines through teaching, research, and community engagement. It is entrusted with the responsibility to create, preserve, and disseminate knowledge while promoting intellectual, cultural, and moral development among students and scholars.

Specifically, the University of Buner is mandated to:

1. Offer undergraduate and postgraduate programs that meet national and international academic standards and respond to emerging societal and market needs.
2. Encourage research and innovation aimed at addressing local, regional, and national challenges, thereby contributing to knowledge-based economic and social progress.
3. Ensure equitable access to higher education for students from all segments of society, fostering inclusiveness, diversity, and gender equity.
4. Promote ethical values, critical thinking, and lifelong learning, preparing graduates to become responsible citizens and competent professionals.
5. Collaborate with national and international institutions to enhance academic quality, research output, and institutional capacity.
6. Engage with the community and industry to apply academic and research outcomes for sustainable development and public welfare.

In fulfilling this mandate, the University of Buner operates in accordance with the regulations and quality assurance standards prescribed by the Higher Education Commission (HEC) of Pakistan and the Government of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa. The University remains committed to fostering an environment of academic excellence, innovation, and integrity for the advancement of society.
